«Reinhard Fust is a wonderful comedian and an acting professional. You can always count on him to come to the set fully prepared. And he is an absolute asset to any film set, not only because of his acting, but also thanks to his people skills. That's why I can highly recommend booking Reinhard Fust to anyone.»

Richard Rabelbauer, sleeping cat productions / October 2021

«To realize joint projects with Reinhard Fust is an honor and fun. His respect and esteem for the art of acting is expressed in his constant professionalism and is the foundation of his passion, which is inevitably expressed, whether as actor, acting coach or author. This collaboration is particularly profitable because Reinhard always manages to balance the ambition for the project in question with the value of working with other artists.»

Emanuel Engin, ICF St.Gallen Productions / November 2020

«I knew: knowing his lines, motivated, mindful - with Reinhard, I don't have to worry. He always showed up well prepared on the film set. His acting skills astounded the whole crew. I was asked if the script was adapted to Reinhard. No, it was the other way around. Reinhard's intensive analysis of the character and the script bear witness to a professionalism that is convincing. The successful teamwork was topped off by Reinhard's pleasant and friendly manners. Kudos!»

Alex Fröhlich, Eutyclus Production / November 2018
